Swimming News

SHORT COURSE NATIONALS - As you can see, printing ALL the results makes little room for anything else! Guess we will just have to limit printing the first eight places in the future. Only problem is that is a lot of cutting and pasting!.....

OMISSIONS - Gene O'Donnell writes that his name was omitted from the Hour Swim results. He would have been 26th in the 60-64 age group. Please don't write to Swim-Master about omissions from meet results. Write to the meet director.....

WHAT MASTERS MEANS TO ME - by Esther Forrest (a member of the Mid-Island Masters in the 40-44) - Having to answer the question, "Why did I join Masters Swimming?" is not easy. I must reflect and reevaluate my motives. I always enjoyed swimming. I had been doing it for fitness for about six years, but I had never participated in any organized sports, even as a youngster. I had lived vicariously through my son's sports accomplishments. Then one day I saw the sign-MASTERS SWIMMING. I hesitated about inquiring. I just knew that if I became involved, it was going to be all the way. Then came the personal invitation from Mike Ford. I went to one of the Mid-Island Masters' monthly meetings. I enjoyed the comraderie. My lap swimming changed to workouts. I saw an improvement in my fitness and swimming ability. I just came back from my first Empire State Games. The thrill I felt in competing and meeting other Masters athletes makes all the hard work worthwhile. It isn't for everyone, but I certainly now know that it's for me!.....

TAPER WORKOUTS - The swimming taper is the special training you do the last 2-3 weeks before a major meet. The goal is for you to perform at maximum potential in an event. Tapers are not a passive rest period, although reducing yardage and avoiding fatigue are important to tapering. The taper sharpens and focuses the training done all season to give you best times in your main events. Tapers include reduced yardage, swims at race pace, intervals swum on longer rest intervals, and more swim-downs between sets. Race-pace swimming is done only for 1/8-1/4 of the actual distance of your event, or excess fatigue sets in. Make sure you rest between sets, and don't over-sprint! The following taper workouts are based on John Troup's & Randy Reese's A Scientific Approach to Swimming.

SPRINTERS

- 400 yards - Warmup
- 6 x 12 1/2 on :45 - Sprint Swim
- 1 x 200 yard - Swimdown
- 6 x 12-1/2 on :45 - Spring Kick
- 6 x 50 on 1:30 - Build (swim accelerating)
- 1 x 200 yard - Swimdown
- 4 x 50 on 3:00 - Swim @ 200 pace
- 300 yards - Swimdown (1850 yd total)

MIDDLE DISTANCE

- 500 yards - Warmup
- 3 x 200 on 4:30 - Swim resting 5 sec after 50
- 1 x 200 - Swimdown
- 3 x 100 on 3:00 - Swim @ 500 pace
- 6 x 50 on 1:00 - Kick
- 6 x 50 on 1:30 - Swim @ 200 pace
- 500 yards - Swimdown (2500 yd total)

GOALS, FUN, AND HEALTH - Perhaps that should be the motto of masters swimming. Some of us are in it for one or two of these reasons. How many are in it for all three? I find myself trying harder and harder to adjust my mindset to fit this better outlook. I suppose it's sufficient to seek fun and health in the pool without goals, but- for me, at least- I think the fun and health are bolstered when I have goals, too. Maybe we need to think more about the goals we select for ourselves and then have to live with. (Words of wisdom from Tom Lyndon, NEM NEWS).....

MARKETING MASTERS SWIMMING - Ways to advertise - cheap (from MACA Newsletter). Talk about your program - spread the word!! Happy & satisfied swimmers will tell their friends, and so on, and so on. Free advertising - newspapers, sports magazines, community mailings. Put up posters (in sports shops, etc) and hand out flyers. Wear a T-shirt with your team name on it - people will ask! Contact local physicians for medical referrals. Give swim clinics at local health clubs and YMCA's. Establish contact with your local Masters Swimming Committee.....

SWIM-MASTER EXPIRATION DATES - Check those three numbers beside your name - first digit is the last issue you will receive of the last two digits (year).....
